ages until he has every cent I have got," said Seantor Link McCandless, "and when he has got it all, then have two good hands that I guess can earn a living with.

"When you look at the list which the governor wants to acquire by exchange, you will see that a great part of it is wanted to enlarge school property. Now, I contend that the most important thing that is to be done in the school line is to see that the teachers who are now being employed, are paid decent salaries. This should be done before it is thought of getting more schools, which will call for more teachers. First the teachers who are working at present should be looked after; after that is done there is time mough to talk about new schools and icavy rains, according to the report brought in at noon on the Kinau. reight Clerk W. P. Jarret said:

"It has been impossible to get the mail over from Walluku on account of the badly washed out roads. We were unable to get any exact informaion in regard to the condition of the roads, but the mail-carrier stated that be could not make the trip. Christmas Calls For Confections

It wouldn't be a cheerful season without Candles and Cakes "GOOD WILL TO MEN, TO EVERYTHING: THE LOVE OF TRADE IS EVERYWHERE." This annual universal spirit is felt at our establishment today. The season is both lessening and advancing daily, and if you have not this spirit today, perhaps you will tomorrow.

"The love of trade" caused us to prepare for the Christmas buyer, and this same love and "good will to everything" should bring you here to trade, where you can get every known confection at the minimum price, to make the season a most cheerful one for yourself, family and children,
